LEIPSI HONORS WAGNER

Leipzig, Germany, May 22.—This city honored the great composer Wagner today by laying the corner-stone of a grand monument to be chiseled by Max Klinger which will be unveiled with great ceremony when finished. Wagner was born in Leipzig, May 22, 1813. He was treated shamefully until toward the end of his long life, after other nations had proclaimed him great for his musical compositions. The music for the occasion will be celebrated at the Gewandhaus (which for decades taboos his works) by a special Wagner concert under the direction of Arthur Nikisch. The Stadt theatre will contribute to the celebration a cycle of Wagner's operas and music dramas under Lohse.

MILICAN NEWS MATTERS.

Last Friday night the Millican public school closed with a concert and play. It was well attended by our home people and by visitors from Bryan, Wellborn, Navasota, Erwin, Allenfarm, and other places. Superintendent Parker was down to deliver the certificates of promotion to the seventh grade. The term's work has been pleasant to pupils, patrons and teachers alike, and the utmost harmony has prevailed during the year's work. The work and advancement have indeed been great. A new music room was erected, a new piano added and paid for, a sanitary water tank was installed, three new teachers' chairs supplemented, the local tax raised 10 cents more on the $100, and a third room is now under construction. With the erection of the third room, new cloak rooms and stage rooms, our school will be second to none in Brazos County outside of Bryan. During the coming year we hope to classify our school among those of the third class, and add the department of agriculture. The future of the school is promising.

Last Saturday afternoon the Millican ball team matched a game with a team from Navasota. The score stood 33 to 4 in favor of Millican. Our boys have learned to play since their game with Wellborn.

Since "Domicello" or "Mahan" is now in Waco in Baylor and is too busy to write, he trusts that someone from Millican will continue to give the news items during the summer.

With best wishes and kindest regards to all.

LITTLE NOBLE T. MELTON.

A little babe once came to earth,
A precious, priceless gem;
His mother, even from his birth,
Had set her heart on him.

With eagerness she watched him grow

More beautiful and sweet;
With care that only mothers know
She guided well his feet.

She dreamed of his as mothers do,
She saw him as a man,
And longed to see her dream come true,
But death has spoiled her plan.

We do not tell her not to weep,
Indeed it would be wrong;
We dare not say he's just asleep,
His silence is too long.

We can but join her in her grief,
Her burden help to bear;
In Christ alone there is relief—
He bids her not despair.

Each ray of light now seems a blur,
The sunshine now seems dim;
Her baby can not come to her,
But she can go to him.

Hope is an anchor to the soul,
Both sure and e'er steadfast;
It points us to the future goal:
Look not back on the past.

SHERIFF FRUSTRATES PLANS OF LYNCHERS

[By Associated Press.] Hiawatha, Kan., May 22.—A second attempt by a Falls City (Neb.) mob to lynch Walter Ballew, the negro who assaulted Mrs. Anna Keller of Falls City Sunday, was frustrated this morning by Sheriff Moore and his deputies after the jail doors had been battered down and the walls scarred by bullets. Citizens hearing the firing rushed to the jail and assisted in persuading the mob to return home.

"Was no one injured in the railway collision, count?"
"No, but nevertheless it was a most painful situation. First, second, third and fourth class passengers all mingled together. Simply unheard of!"—Fleegende Blatter.
